Brett's Banter

Quote of the Week: "Friendship is like peeing on yourself, everyone can see it, but only you get the warm feeling that it brings"

Thank you all for your patience this morning. Even though I had the pleasure of running a few meetings for Chris, the first meeting is still filled with personal challenges. Thanks to all those who gave me support.

For those who did not attend the Changeover, I acknowledged the presentations to Anne Jacob, Brian Yeo and Max Cathcart of their Paul Harris Fellows. Jane Bradford had the great pleasure in presenting a PHF to Ray Tait for his outstanding community work by way of a personal donation to the Rotary Foundation on behalf of her late husband, Murray.

Brian Logan was the well deserved recipient of the Steve Burrows Memorial – Club Person to the Year – award for his outstanding commitment to all things service. He is just always there and organised.

Condolences to Laurie Hearne on the passing of his mum. Our thoughts are with Laurie and his family at this time.

Our guests this morning were Brooke Spokes, Micaela Paul and Rachel Johnston who all spoke on the own RYLA experience. Brooke worked as a Group Leader after being a RYLarian last year. She recounted how she met her current boyfriend at RYLA and he also came back in a leadership role. He dressed up in a tuxedo and sang as song for her in front of everyone at the course. Can't remember the song though.

Brooke is looking at a Rotary Ambassadorial Scholarship to Florida and becoming more involved with Rotary.

Micaela spoke on how RYLA allowed her to overcome her shyness and nerves in group situations and her fear of rock climbing and her accomplishments with hip hop dancing.

Rachel set out to improve her confidence with public speaking and was honoured to be selected as the MC for the Gala Dinner for 300 people.

Sergeants Dinner is next Wednesday 24 June – 6.30 pm at Tamworth Hotel for State of Origin equaliser.

Dennis Maunder had to leave early for the Dentist, but still won the Chook Raffle, so Dennis don't pay next week.

I am looking forward to settling into my new role and to make the breakfast a pleasurable experience and to start the day on a high.

Brett
