“The man who can smile when things go wrong has thought of someone else he can blame it on.”

It was nice to hear from our District Governor Jo Wilkin about her vision for District 9650 and her inspiration taken from Ray Klingensmith our RI president. Lindsay Wilkin also explained his project for the year, a literacy project in Nepal, where with $250 he can equip a teacher for a school that can help so many people read and write. We showed our support with a cheque for $500. I have put my hand up to do the ‘rock to clock’ 12 klms walk at the District conference next March, so I will be looking for sponsorship, please see me if you would like to help.

A warm welcome to our visiting Rotarians, Peter and Anne (DG’s Assistant) and of course to Stuart, Garnet and Di, who are becoming regulars with their visits lately.

DJ had a fun night last Saturday as he celebrated his 8 year culmination in achieving Australian Citizenship. We welcome him to our very proud nation. I see that we have put a federal election on to help him in his celebration.

This election sees one of our own standing as a people’s representative for our local area, Tim Coates. Standing for the National Party, we wish him best of luck.

Can I remind you to please give some time to completing Luke Massey’s questionnaire? I believe that, as like most, he needs the surveys returned so as he can complete his project by yesterday, at least that is what it was like when I went to school.

We had a quick board meeting with Jo and Annette after our breakfast meeting where we went over the activities for the year. It was said that we will do what we normally do as why change a winning formula. I believe that with all of our participation we include all 5 avenues of service.

Don't forget to nominate for any committee that you wish to be on, time is quickly running out. Just ask the relevant director or committee chair as listed elsewhere in the bulletin.

Until next week, enjoy!

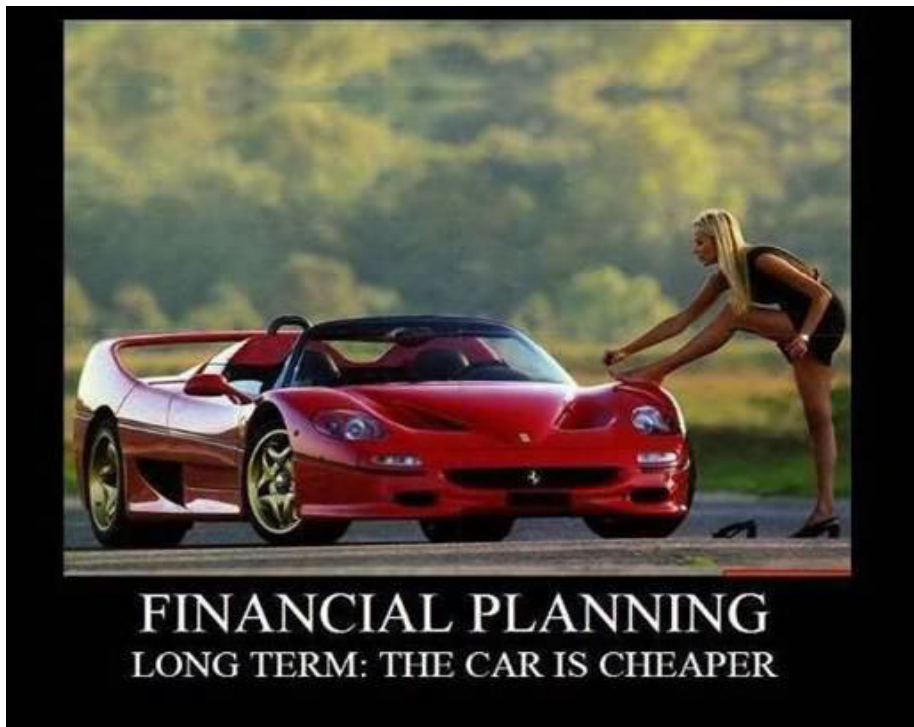

David

Financial planning...

Dan was a single guy living at home with his father and working in the family business.

When he found out he was going to inherit a fortune when his sickly father died, he decided he needed to find a wife with whom to share his fortune.

One evening, at an investment meeting, he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. Her natural beauty took his breath away.

"I may look like just an ordinary guy," he said to her, "but in just a few years, my father will die and I will inherit $200 million."

Impressed, the woman asked for his business card and three days later, she became his stepmother.

Women are so much better at financial planning than men.

One for our favourite Kiwi – Paul Stevenson

Two Kiwis, Trevor and Jeanette, are walking down a street in Bondi in Sydney.

Trevor happens to look in one of the shop windows and sees a sign that catches his eye.

The sign said 'Suits $10.00 each, Shirts $4.00 each, Trousers $5.00 per pair'

Trevor says to his pal, ' Jeanette, look! We could buy a whole lot of those, and whin we get beck to InZid, we could make a fortune '' .

“Now whin we go unto the shop, you be quiet, okay?

Ju st lit me do all the talking cause uf they hear our accint, they might not be nice to us. I'll speak in my bist Aussie accint.”

'No worries, smiled Jeanette, I'll keep my mouth shut.' They go in and Trevor says, 'I'll take fufy suits et $10.00 each, 100 shirts et $4.00 each, and fufy pairs of trousers et $5.00 each.

I'll beck up my truck and...'

The owner of the shop interrupts, 'You're from New Zealand, aren't you?'

'Well... Yis,' says a surprised Trevor. 'How the hill dud you know that?'

The owner says, 'This is a dry cleaners!'
