Rotary Year 2021 - 2022

- District Governor David Mayne
- President: Marina Hearne
- Secretary: Sue O'Connor
- Treasurer: Michael Smith

Down memory lane, Some of you may remember The Jaycees National Conference Oct 1977, Just a few year ago

Marina's 2 cents worth

Quote of the week:

"We cannot always build the future for our youth, but we can build our youth for the future"
-Franklin D. Roosevelt

Joke of the week:

What's the difference between a smart Kiwi and a unicorn?
Nothing, they're both fictional characters

John Worldon will be looking after the guest speaker program, if you have any speaker suggestions, please let him know.

We are coming into the 'silly season' of our Rotary year. There is a lot happening and things can change quickly, so please make sure you read the bulletin properly. Coming up at present we have The Polio Movie Night, Clean Up Aus Day 6/3, S&E 15-18 March, District Conference on 18-20/3, Waste Warriors 25/3, Tree Planting Day and who knows what else might pop up!!

Thank you to Paul Stevenson for giving his personal profile. You all have such fascinating experiences that our new members love to hear.

If you have any club history memorabilia, please send me a photo or pass it on with a description so I can add to our club history accordingly. I am now the proud keeper of a broken trophy from previous cricket competitions.

I have tickets once again to sell for our Polio fundraiser.

$25 a ticket, Thursday March 3rd at 7pm.

Join us for dinner at the PO for dinner beforehand perhaps. Will be a very funny movie and a great night out.

You can purchase the tickets from me at work (Encircle Financial Services, Shop 3/ 481 Peel St, opposite ANZ bus Shelter), or at our breakfast meetings.

Have a wonderful week

Marina

Guest speaker Paul Stevenson being thanked by Ron Allen at the Post Office Hotel. I am never ceased to be amazed at Paul's enthusiasm for helping the young disadvantaged people in our community. You are a Good man mate.

A huge thanks to Andrew and the staff at the Post office Hotel for accommodating our last minute breakfast meeting. You're a Champion.

The keynote speakers are organised, registration is live and the party is almost ready to start!

After watching copious amounts of crime dramas I've come to the conclusion that serial killers only target women who wear matching bra and pantie sets. Feeling much safer now.
